AusCann Group Holdings

Formed in 2014 AusCann believes that patients have the right to high-quality, economical, and clinically-validated cannabis medicines. The company has a strong Board with complementary skill-sets, experience and networks. It has partnered with global leaders, including the largest medicinal cannabis producer in North America Canopy Growth Corp, and Spanish plant breeders PhytoPlant Research and the State Agricultural Biotechnology Centre at Murdoch University, to ensure access to expertise and relevant IP for plant breeding, cultivation and production, and clinical studies.
