

William F. McKeon

Executive Vice President, Chief Strategy & Operating Officer Texas Medical Center

William McKeon is the Executive Vice President, Chief Strategy & Operating Officer of the Texas Medical Center.

He is responsible for driving strategic, operational and programmatic initiatives across the Texas Medical Center's member institutions to enhance its leadership position in the life sciences.

Mr. McKeon has served as an executive for some of the leading companies and institutions in the world, including; Du Pont, Stanford University Medical Center, US Oncology, Medtronic, MicroPort (Shanghai) and Cellnovo.

He has served as the Chief Executive Officer for industry changing companies in Shanghai, China and London, UK and raised over $67 million in equity financing.

Mr. McKeon was twice awarded the ComputerWorld- Smithsonian Award in Medicine.