CT Johnson, General Manager, Basis Point

CT Johnson is a former executive with one of China's largest conglomerates and is an acknowledged authority on China. He's spent the last 20 years working with and for multinational companies in Western Europe, Russia, Southeast Asia, the US and China. CT is the author of Riding The Dragon: Managing Your Chinese Investors, Partners & Employees and is regularly featured in the Sydney Morning Herald, the Australian, the Australian Financial Review and the Daily Telegraph. CT specializes in doing business between China and the Anglophone countries (i.e. US, UK, Australia).

Before moving to Australia, CT lived in the US, Russia and China. He started his career with Ernst & Young and later worked for Swedish telecom equipment-maker Ericsson. Most recently, CT worked for Huawei Technologies in China, acting first as the Head of Sales Operations and later as a member of the board of directors of several Huawei subsidiaries in Asia. CT was also a member of Huawei's M&A team and served on the parent company's Finance Committee. In addition to English, CT speaks German, Russian and Mandarin.
